Description

This 4.5-room duplex occupies the top two floors of a small, well-maintained building in Gollion, in a completely quiet setting.

The ground floor of the apartment is centered around a spectacular living room, featuring a double-height ceiling that opens onto the mezzanine and is illuminated by a large sliding glass door leading to the balcony. The open kitchen with an island naturally extends the living and dining areas. A staircase made of solid wood and stainless steel—a true architectural feature—leads to the upper floor.

Upstairs, beneath white-paneled ceilings, three bedrooms benefit from natural light from Velux skylights and warm hardwood floors. The mezzanine, which opens onto the living room, offers a versatile bonus space: a TV nook, home office, game room, or library—an extra volume that few 4.5-room apartments provide.
